

COAST GUARD AND AUXILIARY WEB SITES

Need to know something about the Auxiliary and don't know where to look? There is a plethora of USCG and Auxiliary web sites. Google is quite good at finding specific item if you include "auxiliary" in the search. Please let me know if you find other web sites, philm@keysfamily.org.

AUXINFO - <http://www.auxinfo.uscg.gov/>

AuxInfo allows all Auxiliary members to track their progress in the training, certifications and other activities. All Auxiliary members have a quick and easy way to follow their progress in gaining qualifications or tracking hours in programs. All the data that is in AuxData, for which you need a password, is also in AuxInfo. AuxInfo is a read only website program that allows members to review their progress.

AuxData - <http://auxdata.uscg.gov/>

Auxiliary Electronic Directory - <http://www.auxedirectory.org/> - Need to find a Division officer or a fellow flotilla member's contact info? Sign up for the national eDirectory. This searchable directory contains contact and office information for every Auxiliarist. While you are there please check to make sure all your contact information is current.
